2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparation

These condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with IFRS applicable to the preparation of interim financial statements, including IAS 34, Interim Financial Reporting. These condensed consolidated interim financial statements do not include all of the information required for full annual financial statements prepared in accordance with IFRS. As such, these condensed consolidated interim financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's annual financial statements for the year-ended December 31, 2017. These condensed consolidated interim financial statements were approved for issue by the Board of Directors on May 10, 2018.

The preparation of interim financial statements in conformity with IAS 34 requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of policies and reported amounts of assets and liabilities, income and expenses. Actual results may differ from these estimates. These condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis.

The accounting policies applied in these condensed consolidated interim financial statements are based on IFRS effective for the year-ended December 31, 2018, as issued and outstanding as of the date the Board of Directors approved these statements. The accounting policies followed in these condensed consolidated interim financial statements are consistent with those applied in the Company's annual consolidated financial statements for the year-ended December 31, 2017, except as described below.

The results for the three-months ended March 31, 2018 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Consolidation

These consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Posera Ltd. and its wholly owned subsidiaries. These subsidiaries are Posera Inc. and its subsidiaries: Posera France SAS; Posera Europe Ltd.; Posera Software Inc.; and Posera USA Inc. (collectively referred to as "Posera Inc."); and HDX Payment Processing Ltd. ("HDX-PP").

A&A Point of Solutions Inc. was amalgamated with Posera Ltd. on January 1, 2017.

The assets of the FingerPrints business are included as discontinued operations in the consolidated financial statements of the Company up until the date of its disposal on September 14, 2017.

Subsidiaries are those entities (including special purpose entities) over which the Company has the power to govern financial and operating policies. Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date on which control is obtained and are de-consolidated from the date that control ceases. Intercompany transactions, balances, income and expenditures, and gains and losses are eliminated.

Changes in accounting policies

This accounting policy disclosure explains the impact of the adoption of IFRS 9 Financial Instruments and IFRS 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers on the Company's financial statements and also discloses the new accounting policies that have been applied prospectively from January 1, 2018, where they are different to those applied in prior periods.

IFRS 9 Financial Instruments

Trade receivables are subject to IFRS 9's new expected credit loss model. The Company revised its impairment methodology under IFRS 9 by applying the simplified approach to measuring expected credit losses (ECL). The Company applied the simplified approach permitted by IFRS 9 on a modified retrospective basis, which requires expected lifetime losses to be recognised from initial recognition of the receivables. The adoption of this accounting policy did not have an impact on the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements.

IFRS 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers

The new standard was issued with the intent of significantly enhancing consistency and comparability of revenue recognition practices across entities and industries. The new standard establishes a single, principles-based five-step model to be applied to all contracts with customers and introduces new and enhanced disclosure requirements. The modified retrospective approach allows the cumulative impact of the adoption to be recognized in retained earnings as of January 1, 2018 and that the comparative figures will not be restated. The adoption of this standard did not have an impact on the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements. For additional details on the adoption of the new standard, see Note 3.

(in Canadian dollars, except as noted)

IFRS standards issued but not yet effective

Standards issued but not yet effective or amended up to the date of issuance of the Company's consolidated financial statements are listed below. This listing is of standards and interpretations issued, which the Company reasonably expects to be applicable at a future date. The Company has not determined if they will early adopt any standards at this time.

i) On January 13, 2016 the IASB issued IFRS 16, Leases. The new standard is effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2019. Earlier application is permitted for entities that apply IFRS 15 at or before the date of initial adoption of IFRS 16. IFRS 16 will replace IAS 17, Leases ("IAS 17"). This standard introduces a single lessee accounting model and requires a lessee to recognize assets and liabilities for all leases with a term of more than 12 months, unless the underlying asset is of low value. A lessee is required to recognize a right-of-use asset representing its right to use the underlying asset and a lease liability representing its obligation to make lease payments. This standard substantially carries forward the lessor accounting requirements of IAS 17, while requiring enhanced disclosures to be provided by lessors. Other areas of the lease accounting model have been impacted, including the definition of a lease. Transitional provisions have been provided.

   As the Company has significant contractual obligations in the form of operating leases under the existing standard, there will be a material increase in both assets and liabilities upon adoption of the new standard, and material changes to the timing of recognition of expenses associated with the lease arrangements. The Company is analyzing the new standard to determine its impact on the statement of financial position and statement of operations.

Payment Terms

Payments are received from customers on a continuous basis. POS – Hardware and Software customers typically pay an upfront deposit with the balance due after deployment has been completed. Support and Maintenance payments are typically received in advance of the contract commencement date. Professional Services payments are received continuously throughout the contract term or upon the completion of the contract. Transactional Processing payments are received monthly from processing partners.

Contract Assets

The Company has applied the optional exception to expense incremental costs associated with a contract which would otherwise have been capitalized and amortized over a period of one year or less.

3. REVENUE (continued)

Significant Judgements Made to Recognize Revenue

Revenue recognition

Revenue from contracts with customers is recognized when the customer obtains control of the promised asset and the Company satisfies its performance obligation. The Company offers certain arrangements whereby a customer can purchase products and services together. Where such arrangements exist, revenue is allocated to each performance obligation based on the relative fair value of the performance obligations. The fair values of each performance obligation are determined by current market prices of these performance obligations when sold separately.

Performance Obligations Satisfied Over Time

For support and maintenance contracts, the Company recognizes revenue over time. This method is the most accurate representation of the Company's progress toward fulfilling its performance obligations. The Company's performance obligation is satisfied equally throughout the term of the contract as support and maintenance services are available to customers during this period.

For professional services contracts, the Company recognises revenue on a percentage of completion basis based on the time spent on a specific project. This method is the most accurate representation of the Company's progress toward fulfilling its performance obligation. The Company's performance obligation is satisfied as time is spent on the contracted development project.

Significant Judgements Made for Performance Obligations Satisfied at A Point In Time

Revenues from Hardware, Software and Transactional Processing are recognized upon the fulfillment of the performance obligation as described above. Software revenues are recorded when customers are provided license keys to use the software, as the intellectual property exists in terms of form and function. At the time of fulfilling the performance obligation, customers have direct use of, and can obtain substantially all the remaining benefits from the license at the point in time the license transfers.

Determining the Transaction Price

All transaction prices are determined through negotiations with customers based on market rates.

(in Canadian dollars, except as noted)

Income tax expense has been recognized based on management’s best estimate of the weighted average annual income tax rate expected for the full financial year for each taxable entity, less a valuation adjustment in instances where it was not probable that any future income tax assets would be realized. The estimated average annual rate used for the three-months ended March 31, 2018 and 2017, by taxable entity, ranged from 0% to 27%.
